In Re: Stop on Red – Motions to Reopen Citations

STANDING ORDER

WHEREAS:

1. On October 1, 2007, the Honorable Mark Wernick issued an Order, granting certain defendants-claimants' motions to reopen their stop on red citations.
2. Since Judge Wernick's ruling, many other defendants-claimants have filed motions to reopen stop on red citations.
3. A civil law suit seeking class action certification, entitled Shapira et al. v. City of Minneapolis et al., Case No. 06-CV-02190-MJD-SRN is currently pending in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota.
4. The City of Minneapolis agrees that it is in the interests of justice to have all motions to reopen a stop on red citation decided in a consistent and timely manner.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The Minneapolis City Attorney's Office agrees that all motions to reopen a stop on red citation filed in Hennepin County District Court shall be GRANTED in accordance with the terms of Judge Wernick's Order filed on October 1, 2007.
2. Defendant-claimants filing motions to reopen stop on red citations will not be required to appear in court.
3. The Minneapolis City Attorney's Office will process all motions filed and received in Hennepin County District Court through January 31, 2008.
4. The Hennepin County Violations Bureau will process all motions filed and received in Hennepin County District Court beginning on February 1, 2008 and beyond.
5. This Standing Order will remain in effect until a settlement is reached and implemented in the Shapira et al. v. City of Minneapolis et al., case. At that time, all motions to reopen a stop on red citation will be denied and defendants-claimants shall be referred to the administrator of the civil action.
